1. ( [REDACTED] - JMM) Called Representative Edward J. Derwinski, a member of the Henderson Subcommittee before which the Director appears tomorrow in connection with S. 1035, Constitutional Rights of Federal Employees. Mr. Derwinski assured me he would be present at tomorrow's hearing and indicated complete sympathy with the Agency's position. As in an earlier conversation, he said he feels that the best solution from the Agency's standpoint will be to drag the matter on as long as possible so that it will never reach the floor. He thinks there is a fair prospect that this can be done through a variety of delaying tactics including absence of a quorum, the filing of a minority report, etc., and, also as in our earlier conversation, he indicated he would try to employ such tactics in our behalf.
